

UNITED STATES BANKRUPTCY COURT
NORTHERN DISTRICT OF OHIO

PROCEDURES GOVERNING SUBMISSION OF PROPOSED ORDERS
October 2023

- 1. Submission. Proposed orders shall be individually submitted according to the following procedures adopted by each Judge. Instructions for submitting proposed orders through the ECF E-Orders module can be found in Section 12 of the Electronic Case Filing Attorney Manual.

Akron – Judge Alan M. Koschik:

All proposed orders shall be submitted electronically using the ECF E-Orders module.

Canton – Judge Mary Ann Whipple, Judge Tiara N.A. Patton, Judge John P. Gustafson:

All proposed orders shall be submitted electronically using the ECF E-Orders module. All proposed orders must be submitted electronically at the time of filing of the motion, application or other document seeking relief from the Court.

Cleveland – Judge Jessica E. Price Smith:

All proposed orders shall be submitted electronically using the ECF E-Orders module. All proposed orders must be submitted electronically at the time of filing of the motion, application or other document seeking relief from the Court.

Cleveland – Judge Suzana Krstevski Koch:

All proposed orders shall be submitted electronically using the ECF E-Orders module. All proposed orders must be submitted electronically at the time of filing of the motion, application or other document seeking relief from the Court.

Toledo – Judge Mary Ann Whipple:

All proposed orders shall be submitted electronically using the ECF E-Orders module. All proposed orders must be submitted electronically at the time of filing of the motion, application or other document seeking relief from the Court.

Toledo – Judge John P. Gustafson:

All proposed orders shall be submitted electronically using the ECF E-Orders module. All proposed orders must be submitted electronically at the time of filing of the motion, application or other document seeking relief from the Court.

Toledo – Successor Judge:

All proposed orders shall be submitted electronically using the ECF E-Orders module. All proposed orders must be submitted electronically at the time of filing of the motion, application or other document seeking relief from the Court.

Youngstown – Judge Tiiara N.A. Patton:

All proposed orders shall be submitted electronically using the ECF E-Orders module.
All proposed orders shall be submitted electronically at the time of filing of the motion, application, or other document seeking relief from the Court.

2. Social Security Number. Only the last four digits of the debtor’s Social Security number should be included on the proposed order.
3. Service List. A service list, including names and addresses in alphabetical order, shall be submitted with proposed orders.
4. Related Documents. Any attachment, exhibit or related document to be electronically entered in connection with the proposed order shall also be electronically filed.
5. Confirmation. Electronic confirmation of the receipt of a proposed order will not be sent by the Court or by the ECF system.
6. Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law. The above procedures shall also apply to the submission of proposed findings of fact and conclusions of law.
7. Effectiveness. All electronic orders shall have the same force and effect as if the Judge had affixed his or her signature to a paper copy.