NORTHERN DISTRICT OF OHIO
CANTON

IN RE: ) ADMINISTRATIVE ) ORDER NO. 16-02 DELEGATION OF AUTHORITY TO )
SIGN AND ENTER CERTAIN ORDERS ) JUDGE RUSS KENDIG

In pleadings filed or pending on or after January 1, 2017, and in the interest of judicial economy and the prompt governance and disposition of uncontested matters, the Clerk of the Bankruptcy Court may, through the use of regularly appointed deputies, prepare, sign and enter orders as specified below without submission to a judge, unless otherwise directed by a judge of the United States Bankruptcy Court for the Northern District of Ohio sitting at Canton. Administrative Order No. 14-04 is repealed effective January 1, 2017. Administrative Order No. 88-15 and Supplement No. 1 thereto, which are attached and incorporated by this reference, are hereby amended to include the following additional delegation of authority to the Clerk to sign orders:

1. Orders converting cases (i) pursuant to a debtor's initial request in the case and made pursuant to 11 U.S.C. §§ 706(a), 1112(a), 1208(a) and 1307(a) without notice, (ii) pursuant to the court's own motion after notice to the master mailing list where no objections are pending, (iii) under any chapter after a hearing at which the court ordered the conversion, and (iv) when no objection or request for hearing has been filed and the time period for such has expired.
2. Orders granting the first request, by the chapter 7 or chapter 13 trustee only, to compel attendance of an individual or entity for examination pursuant to Fed. R. Bankr. P. 2004 on 30 days notice to the witness and held at a place within 50 miles of the residence or place of business of the witness, provided the motion does not include a request for the production of documentary evidence and the trustee certifies that the motion and order complies with this paragraph and is a court approved form. The motion and order may require production by a debtor only, but the court will review the same upon request of a debtor.
3. Orders granting the trustee's application to defer filing fees in adversary proceedings until final disposition of the bankruptcy case or the availability of funds.
4. Orders to pay small dividends or unclaimed funds into the registry of the court.

5. Orders to counsel to seek default judgments in adversary proceedings.
6. Completed form orders relating to pretrial conduct, including initial pretrial and case management orders, scheduling and trial orders (not including orders continuing such matters) and memorandum orders following pretrial conferences.
7. Orders granting the trustee's request for the Clerk to provide notice of a document if the Clerk does not object.
8. The following items, only if submitted by the chapter 13 trustee and only on the approved forms attached hereto and referenced herein with completions as indicated on the forms. Service lists may be changed as necessary and/or required. Orders shall be entered only following appropriate notice and hearing as required in the particular case.
  - A. Orders dismissing cases under chapter 13 where (i) the trustee has moved for dismissal, the trustee has noticed the motion to dismiss, and the debtor has waived the timely opportunity to object, request a hearing or otherwise contest the dismissal (Form 1), (ii) where the trustee has filed an affidavit requesting dismissal based upon a previously entered order and the debtor has waived the timely opportunity to object, request a hearing or otherwise contest the dismissal, if any is applicable (Form 2), (iii) following a hearing at which the court granted a motion to dismiss (Form 3) or to dismiss with prejudice following a hearing and conforming with the decision orally announced (Form 4);
  - B. Agreed orders determining a motion to dismiss as in Form 5;
  - C. Orders to vacate orders to dismiss as in Form 6;
  - D. Agreed orders granting a motion for reconsideration as in Form 7;
  - E. Orders denying motions for reconsideration of orders to dismiss following a hearing, conforming with the decision orally announced by the court and set forth as in Form 8;
  - F. Orders granting the trustee's motion to convert following a hearing, conforming to the decision orally announced by the court and set forth as in Form 9;
  - G. Objections to claims under the circumstances described by and set forth as in Forms 10, 11, 12, 13, 14 and 15;

- H. Orders accurately setting forth an agreement for the debtor to remit tax refunds as set forth in Form 16 and which permit the debtor to retain no more than $2,000.00. Debtors may be permitted to retain more than $2,000.00, but such orders shall be entered by the judge;
  - I. Orders to sever a proceeding as in Form 17;
  - J. Orders to find mortgage payments current as in Form 18;
  - K. Orders determining the trustee's payment of a claim as in Form 19;
  - L. Orders granting the trustee's objection to an exemption under the circumstances as in Forms 20 and 21;
  - M. Orders granting a motion to deny for lack of prosecution as in Form 22;
  - N. Orders for a refund as in Form 23;
  - O. Orders to employ an examiner at a cost not exceeding $1,000.00 if debtor agreed to the same at the meeting of creditors or otherwise, there was no objection to the motion, the examiner's affidavit complies with the disinterestedness standard and the order is as set forth in Forms 24 or 25; and
9. Orders granting judgment by default on motions for relief from stay and/or abandonment in chapter 7 and chapter 13 cases which conform to the standard forms adopted by this district from time to time.
  10. Orders excusing appearance at a show cause hearing for a failure to fulfill a deficiency request initiated by the clerk when the deficiency is cured to the satisfaction of the clerk.
  11. Orders relating to eligibility for discharge as set forth in Exhibit B attached to Administrative Order 08-06 and the standard orders under 11 U.S.C. § 1328(H) as set forth in Exhibit G attached to Administrative Order 08-06, or as may be provided in similar orders or for similar purposes hereafter.
  12. The form Order and Notice of Indefinite Continuation of Confirmation Hearing and Extension of Trustee's Deadline to Object to Confirmation as in Form 26 as attached or substantially similar thereto.
  13. Preliminary orders on applications to waive filing fees that only request additional information.

14. Orders solely granting motions to limit service by the chapter 13 trustee on motions to modify plans in which the only modification is increasing payments as in Form 27.
15. Agreed orders between the chapter 13 trustee and debtor or debtor's counsel that provide an arrangement to cure payment delinquencies to the chapter 13 trustee, but only if the amount of the delinquency is less than or equal to three (3) months payments and ten thousand dollars ($10,000.00).
16. Orders granting motions to redact personal identifiers if filed by the person who originally filed the document to be redacted.
17. Orders on motions filed by debtors prior to the expiration of the dischargeability deadline seeking to extend the deadline for a period not to exceed thirty (30) days from the initial deadline.
18. Preliminary orders on motions for relief from stay that require movant to substantiate that it is the real party in interest.
19. Orders denying a reaffirmation agreement for failure to timely cure a deficiency notice.
20. Orders requesting an explanation of fees that exceed a no-look amount established by the court.
21. Orders that establish a deadline for a debtor to object to the court's finding that a debtor is not eligible for a discharge because of a previous bankruptcy discharge.
22. In cases and adversaries where the court has identified a lack of prosecution or inactivity, the notices or orders that require a party to act by a specified date in order to avoid either dismissal or denial.

The Clerk is authorized to enter orders containing references to Administrative Order No. 14-04 where the provision in question is the same as the provision in Administrative Order No. 16-02.

The Clerk's action authorized by this order shall be accomplished by the affixing to such orders of the following language:

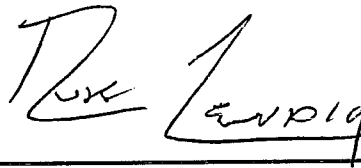

ENTERED PURSUANT TO ADMINISTRATIVE ORDER
NO. 16-02, TERESA D. UNDERWOOD, CLERK OF COURT

BY: _____
Deputy Clerk

Any party adversely affected by an order so entered shall be entitled to reconsideration thereof by a judge of the court, if, within ten (10) days of service of notice of the entry of such order, such party files a written motion for reconsideration, which motion or attached memorandum shall state the grounds, in accordance with Local Civil Rule 7.1 of the United States District Court, made applicable in cases before this court by Local Civil Rule 1.1, and with Local Bankruptcy Rule 9013-1. Such motions for reconsideration will ordinarily be considered by the court upon the papers submitted.

Any party adversely affected by an order shall retain all rights of any nature relating to the impropriety of the order or the underlying motion, for example, the legal insufficiency of service.

IT IS SO ORDERED.

Made at Canton, Ohio this 3rd day of October, 1988.

In the interests of judicial economy and the prompt disposition of matters not subject to contest, the Clerk, from and after October 3, 1988, through regularly appointed deputies, may prepare, sign and enter orders as specified below for the governance of cases filed in the United States Bankruptcy Court's divisional office at Canton, Ohio without submission to a judge, unless otherwise directed by a judge of the United States Bankruptcy Court sitting at Canton, Ohio:

1. Orders granting leave to pay filing fees in installments.
2. Orders extending the time to file schedules, statements of business affairs or statements of intentions of individual debtors; provided, however, that such filings must be made by the close of business of the fourth working day prior to the date on which the meeting of creditors pursuant to 11 U.S.C. §341 is first scheduled, unless otherwise ordered by the Court.
3. Orders to consolidate joint cases pursuant to 11 U.S.C. §302.

4. Payroll deduction orders entered in pending Chapter 13 wage-earner plans.
5. Orders directing interim payments to Chapter 13 trustee, pending entry of order of confirmation.
6. Orders to appear and show cause why a case should not be dismissed for debtor's failure to appear at a meeting of creditors pursuant to 11 U.S.C. §341.
7. Orders to dismiss Chapter 13 cases upon request of the debtor and pursuant to the provisions of 11 U.S.C. §1307(b).
8. Orders releasing employer and debtor from making further payments in cases under Chapter 13.
9. Orders granting discharge in cases under Chapters 7 and 13.
10. Orders pursuant to Bankruptcy Rule 3022 relative to entry of final decree.
11. Orders directing compliance with Bankruptcy Rules 7008 and 7012, relative to core/non-core allegations, pursuant to General Order No. 88-2.
12. Orders relating to pretrial conduct, including the Court's Standing Order and Preliminary Pretrial Order.
13. Such other orders as a judge of the Court may from time to time authorize to be entered consistent herewith.

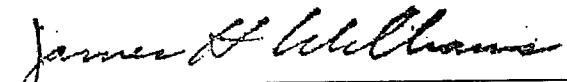

The Clerk's action herein authorized shall be accomplished by the affixing to such orders of the following language:

ENTERED PURSUANT TO ADMINISTRATIVE ORDER
NO. 688-15: BETH A. DICK, CLERK OF COURT

BY _____
Deputy Clerk

Any party adversely affected by an order so entered shall be entitled to reconsideration thereof by a judge of the Court if, within ten (10) days of service of notice of the entry of such order, such party files a written motion for reconsideration, which motion or a memorandum attached shall state the grounds therefor, in accordance with L. Civ. R. 3.01 of the United States District Court, made applicable in cases before this court by L. Civ. R. 1.01. Such motions for reconsideration will ordinarily be considered by the Court upon the papers submitted.

IT IS SO ORDERED.
